Dear Sir Mr Enoch Powell tells me he has sent you a review of my above book and I would be grateful if you could send me a copy of the number in which it appears. The publishers have informed me that owing to the printing strike the official publication date is likely to be later in July than their original date of 11th July. Yours Truly Jackie Smyth. He was 21 years old, and a lieutenant in the 15th Ludhiana Sikhs, 3rd (Lahore) Division, Indian Army during the First World War, when his actions earned him the Victoria Cross (VC). In June 1915, Smyth was awarded the VC, the United Kingdom's highest award for bravery in combat. The citation for this award, published in the London Gazette read: For most conspicuous bravery near Richebourg L'Avoue on 18 May 1915. With a bombing party of 10 men, who voluntarily undertook this duty, he conveyed a supply of 96 bombs to within 20 yards of the enemy's position over exceptionally dangerous ground, after the attempts of two other parties had failed. Lieutenant Smyth succeeded in taking the bombs to the desired position with the aid of two of his men (the other eight having been killed or wounded), and to effect his purpose he had to swim a stream, being exposed the whole time to howitzer, shrapnel, machine-gun and rifle fire. 177 - WW2 Bomber command Sqn Ldr John Costello DFC DFM signed A4 Biography page, taken from Bomber Command Profiles collection. John Costello was a Navigator on 49 Squadron RAF and 463 Squadron RAAF and he completed almost two full tours on Lancaster bombers. His service included raids on some of Germany's most heavily defended targets including the V1 rocket sites and Coastal batteries and gun emplacements in Normandy prior to the D-DAY landings. He was on many occasions 'Nav, Leader' for his squadron. It was on one such raid on the night of 21/22 February 1944 while with 463 Squadron that his Lancaster PB 804 (JO-A) was hit by flak and attacked by a German FW190 while bombing Gravenhorst (Mittelland Canal). The aircraft was abandoned on fire in mid-air over the target. That night the aircraft was carrying an extra crewman (Camera Operator) as 463 Squadron was used by the RAF film unit to film and record footage of the raids on Germany. Three of the crew (including the pilot W/Cdr 'Bill' Forbes R.A.A.F) failed to leave the aircraft and were killed, the remaining five men parachuted to safety and were captured and made POW's until May 1945. Costello continued his service with the RAF and he earned his GSM (Near East) when he took part in the Suez Crisis of 1956,. Good condition Est. £10 - 14
